The Trail Of The Octopus is a silent 15 chapter cliffhanger serial starring Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber, released in October of 1919. The production standards of the sets and the camerawork in this serial were top notch. There were a number of scenes that I would say were filmed with the best use of light and shadow I have ever seen.

Here's the first reel of The Trail of the Octopus, a pulpy serial photoplay from 1919. Watch as Carter Holmes (Ben Wilson), master criminologist, and Ruth Stanhope (Neva Gerber), niece of Dr. Reid Stanhope, the discover of the Sacred Talisman of Set (a.k.a. the Devil's Trademark), are drawn inexorably into the clutches of a sinister land octopus (who sadly is only symbolic of the plot and makes no appearance outside of the intro and an advert where he grabs the whole cast ):
